GUIDE TO FASTING FOR FEBRUARY 2012

Fasting is an integral and essential part of Orthodox Christian life. There are four major periods of fasting during the year and a number of other days in which we usually abstain from meat, dairy products, eggs, fish, wine and oil. Every Wednesday and Friday (with some exceptions) is a fasting day. If a feast day falls on a Wednesday or a Friday the fasting is relaxed as indicated. The Triodion (three-week preparation for Great Lent) begins on the 5/2/12. No fasting is permitted that week. Meatfare Sunday (19/2/12) is the last day we consume meat before Pascha. Please consult your spiritual father or a priest to help you apply these guidelines to your own spiritual struggle and situation.

Wednesday	1	Abstain from meat, eggs, dairy products, fish, wine and oil
Friday	3	Abstain from meat, eggs, dairy products, fish, wine and oil.
Wednesday	8	No fast.
Friday	10	No fast.
Wednesday	15	Abstain from meat, eggs, dairy products, fish, wine and oil.
Friday	17	Abstain from meat, eggs, dairy products, fish.
Wednesday	22	Abstain from meat.
Friday	24	Abstain from meat.
