

GREEK LANGUAGE AND CULTURE: ENTERTAINMENT

TV

- Many Greek people enjoy and subscribe to the Greek television channel-Antenna
- SBS television also provide Greek programs

Movies

- Greek language DVD's are often available for purchase at large Department stores(eg Big W). It is important you check on the back of the DVD for the list of languages in which it is available.
- It is also possible to purchase Greek language movies from the website <http://www.multilingualbooks.com/foreignvids-greek.html>

Radio

- Many Greek people enjoy the Greek radio program on 4EB (98.1FM) in Brisbane, or check their website <http://www.4eb.org.au>
- SBS radio programming can be downloaded from their website by going to the following address, <http://www.sbs.com.au/radio>

Newspapers

- There are a large number of Greek newspapers (some in English as well) available online at <http://www.onlinenewspapers.com/greece.htm>

Books

- Every council library in Queensland borrows from the Old State library. The State Library has manly Greek-Language resources (books, videos, CDs), which your local library can arrange to borrow for a small fee.
- You can do a search of the State Library resources by going to following web address <http://www.slq.qld.gov.au/find/cat>

Music

- There are distinct Greek songs for different occasions such as weddings, feasts, lullabies and funerals.
- Some Greek music can be sourced through Sanity,s website using their search engine at web address: <http://www.sanity.com.au/>